

Response

Purpose: Analyzing current government effectiveness.

Based on the most recently available data, the 81-page report found that in 2023, more than 40,000 children in Nova Scotia (22.7%) were living in households below the low-income threshold.

An "Evidence" block (for laws/stats).

1 This Act may be cited as the Poverty Reduction Strategy Act.

2 In this Act,

"Minister" means the Minister of Opportunities and Social Development;

"Poverty Reduction Strategy" means the Poverty Reduction Strategy required by this Act.

3 This Act is binding on the Crown in right of the Province.

4 (1) The Minister shall, within eighteen months of the coming into force of this Act, develop and table in the House of Assembly a comprehensive poverty reduction strategy.

(2) The strategy must

(a) set out clear and measurable targets for reducing poverty in the Province, including child poverty, by specified dates;

(b) use the Market Basket Measure of poverty as the primary standard for setting targets and measuring progress;

(c) include a review of the adequacy of income assistance and related supports, including whether benefit levels allow recipients of income assistance to meet their basic needs and live with dignity, in particular for recipients living with disabilities;

A visual "Status Badge" or dropdown area for you to select Effective, Insufficient, or Developing.

Credit - name student responsible for this section