

Ice Breaker Assignment

Icebreakers are games used to help people get to know one another. These types of games can be a great way to introduce people who are coming together for the first time. For this assignment you will be responsible for creating or finding an Icebreaker game to present to a younger group of students. Use the guide below to complete this assignment.

I Can	To complete this assignment please follow the “I can” statements listed below: I can create my own Icebreaker game or remix a created Icebreaker game I can create my own resources to go with the Icebreaker game I can present my Icebreaker game to a younger group of students within our school community I can submit any resources I have created for this to our Google Classroom
Creating Your Resource	Create a resource that can be used to help explain your Icebreaker game. Your resource should include the following: ● Basic Description of the Icebreaker Game ○ Provide a basic description of the Icebreaker game you selected or created. ○ Did you create the Icebreaker or did you remix an Icebreaker that was already created? ● Rules and How to Play ○ Here you will outline how to play the game and any rules the players must be aware of. ○ Are there any hazards players must look out for or be careful of while playing? ● Sportsmanship and Community: ○ Define the two terms: Sportsmanship and Community ○ Try and relate the game back to one of our four core community values respect, kindness, honesty, empathy. ○ Complete this reflection question: ■ Provide two examples of positive and negative sportsmanship ■ How can Icebreaker games help create a greater sense of community?
Presentation	For this assignment, you will be responsible for deciding how to present your information. Here are some potential formats: ● Google Docs ● Google Slides ● We Video ● CoSpaces, Minecraft etc ● Talk to me if you have an idea
Outcomes	Learners will reflect on how life skills impact emotional, physical, social, emotional and spiritual health.